

CAP CITY FINE DINER AND BAR OPENING DECEMBER 22 IN CINCINNATI

CLASSIC COMFORT MEETS MODERN ELEGANCE IN THE Heart of the Queen City

CINCINNATI, OH – The wait is over! Cap City Fine Diner and Bar, an exciting concept from Cameron Mitchell Restaurants (CMR), is opening its doors in the heart of Cincinnati on December 22. Positioned across from the University of Cincinnati and on the ground level of Hotel Celare, this highly anticipated diner is poised to become a local favorite.

Led by General Manager Brad Beam and Executive Chef Alex Wisniewski, Cap City Fine Diner and Bar offers an innovative take on classic comfort food. Guests can indulge in signature dishes like the famed Diner Meatloaf and daily Blue Plate Features, alongside decadent desserts such as the Seriously Big Chocolate Cake, 24K Carrot Cake, and Chocolate Covered Peanut Butter Pie. Complementing the menu is an array of handcrafted cocktails, draft margaritas, and indulgent boozy shakes, ensuring there's something for every palate. "We are thrilled to bring Cap City Fine Diner and Bar to Cincinnati," said Brad Beam, General Manager. "The community here has made this experience so special, and we're honored to have built a team of incredible new associates who embody the heart of hospitality. I can't wait to see our guests enjoying the signature warmth, comfort, and unforgettable dining experience that Cameron Mitchell Restaurants are known for."

The design of this location boasts several unique features:

ARTFUL MURALS: Cap City Diner will feature three custom murals by Ohio native artist Brian Riegel, celebrating Cincinnati's rich history and adding local charm to the space.

ARCHITECTURAL ELEGANCE: Large ceiling coves provide an elegant, glowing ambiance throughout the dining areas.

CENTRAL ISLAND BAR: A true centerpiece, the bar is surrounded by the entire restaurant and offers an open view of the kitchen, evoking the spirit of a classic diner.

EXPOSED BAKERY: Guests are greeted by marquee lights, jars of candy, and a showcase of house-made baked goods upon entry—a nod to the authentic diner experience.
